Financial Markets Daily

Main drivers for the financial markets today...

- Stock markets positive, USD with small changes, and government yields negative, following comments from Powell yesterday regarding progress on the battle against inflation, increasing hopes that the Fed might be nearing the end of its tightening cycle
- Today, on the monetary policy front, the BoE increased its reference rate by 50bps to 4.00%, in line with expectations. Later, the ECB will have its own decision, also expecting +50bps to 2.50%, noting Christine Lagarde's press conference after this
- In the US, House Speaker Kevin McCarthy (R) mentioned that the discussion with President Biden regarding the debt ceiling was constructive and they hope to reach an agreement soon
- On economic data, in the US we will be looking into the weekly jobless claims and December's factory orders. Tonight, we await the release of Caixin PMIs in China, with an expectation of a significant improvement in services
- Regarding the war in Ukraine, Russia has intensified its attacks, with the first anniversary of the invasion –on February 24th– nearing. In this context, attention will be on the meeting between EU Commission President, Ursula Von Der Leyen, and Ukrainian President, Volodymyr Zelenskiy, tomorrow

Equities

- Stock markets with positive bias, following yesterday's monetary policy decision in the US and with expectations that the central bank could be less restrictive going forward. Also, focus will be on results of major tech companies
- US futures anticipate a higher openning, with the S&P 500 trading up 0.4% on pre-market and the Nasdaq 1.4%, after Meta Platforms beat analysts' expectations. The stock is up more than 20% ahead of the open. Meanwhile, in Europe, the Eutostoxx advances 0.7% looking ahead to the ECB monetary policy decision later today. Asia closed mixed, with the Hang Seng dropping 0.5%. Finally, in Mexico, the Mexbol Index could hover around 55,300pts
- On the corporate front, 40 S&P 500 companies are expected to release their figures today, highlighting Alphabet, Apple, Amazon, Ford, and Starbucks' results at market close

Sovereign fixed income, currencies and commodities

- Positive performance in sovereign bonds. European assets gain up to 15bps. The Treasuries' curve adjust -3bps, on average, with the largest moves in the belly. Yesterday, the Mbonos' curve posted gains of 4bps and the 10-year benchmark, May'33, closed at 8.64% (-5bps)
- The dollar retreats, DXY (-0.1%), while developed currencies trade with mixed returns with JPY (+0.4%) and GBP (-0.6%) at the extremes. In EM, the bias is positive with PHP(+1.2%) leading the gains. Meanwhile, MXN appreciates 0.3% reaching levels not seen since the start of the pandemic at 18.55 per dollar, after gaining 1.3% yesterday
- Crude-oil futures register slight losses while investors digested the Fed's latest meeting and the decision of the OPEC+ JMMC on keeping the production policy unchanged. Metals register a positive performance with gold gaining 1.3% reaching levels not seen since the start of the restrictive cylce in US

Corporate Debt

- S&P Global Ratings has placed the national scale ratings of several project finance issues in Mexico under criteria review following changes in rating methodology. The main projects affected are the issuances CPEXACB 16U, OPI 15U, LPSLCB 14-2U and PAMMSCB 14U
- Moody's Local México rates OMA's proposed issuances at 'AAA.mx'.
   According to the agency, OMA's rating reflects its solid competitive position in a heavily regulated industry with very high barriers to entry, the recovery in its traffic and revenue levels after the abrupt drop caused by the COVID-19 pandemic, a low level of leverage accompanied with high interest coverage that recorded 1.38x and 6.82x, respectively, as of 3Q22, solid profit margins, strong cash flow generation and liquidity position

Moreover, we also state that we have not received, nor receive, or will receive compensation other than that of Grupo Financiero Banorte S.A.B. of C.V for the provision of our services.

Relevant statements.

In accordance with current laws and internal procedures manuals, analysts are allowed to hold long or short positions in shares or securities issued by companies that are listed on the Mexican Stock Exchange and may be the subject of this report; nonetheless, equity analysts have to adhere to certain rules that regulate their participation in the market in order to prevent, among other things, the use of private information for their benefit and to avoid conflicts of interest. Analysts shall refrain from investing and holding transactions with securities or derivative instruments directly or through an intermediary person, with Securities subject to research reports, from 30 calendar days prior to the issuance date of the report in question, and up to 10 calendar days after its distribution date.

Compensation of Analysts.

Analysts' compensation is based on activities and services that are aimed at benefiting the investment clients of Casa de Bolsa Banorte and its subsidiaries. Such compensation is determined based on the general profitability of the Brokerage House and the Financial Group and on the individual performance of each analyst. However, investors should note that analysts do not receive direct payment or compensation for any specific transaction in investment banking or in other business areas.

Last-twelve-month activities of the business areas.

Grupo Financiero Banorte S.A.B. de C.V., through its business areas, provides services that include, among others, those corresponding to investment banking and corporate banking, to a large number of companies in Mexico and abroad. It may have provided, is providing or, in the future, will provide a service such as those mentioned to the companies or firms that are the subject of this report. Casa de Bolsa Banorte or its affiliates receive compensation from such corporations in consideration of the aforementioned services.

Over the course of the last twelve months, Grupo Financiero Banorte S.A.B. C.V., has not obtained compensation for services rendered by the investment bank or by any of its other business areas of the following companies or their subsidiaries, some of which could be analyzed within this report.

Activities of the business areas during the next three months.

Casa de Bolsa Banorte, Grupo Financiero Banorte or its subsidiaries expect to receive or intend to obtain revenue from the services provided by investment banking or any other of its business areas, by issuers or their subsidiaries, some of which could be analyzed in this report.

Securities holdings and other disclosures.

Guide for investment recommendations.

	Reference
BUY	When the share expected performance is greater than the MEXBOL estimated performance.
HOLD	When the share expected performance is similar to the MEXBOL estimated performance.
SELL	When the share expected performance is lower than the MEXBOL estimated performance.

Even though this document offers a general criterion of investment, we urge readers to seek advice from their own Consultants or Financial Advisors, in order to consider whether any of the values mentioned in this report are in line with their investment goals, risk and financial position.

Determination of Target Prices

For the calculation of estimated target prices for securities, analysts use a combination of methodologies generally accepted among financial analysts, including, but not limited to, multiples analysis, discounted cash flows, sum-of-the-parts or any other method that could be applicable in each specific case according to the current regulation. No guarantee can be given that the target prices calculated for the securities will be achieved by the analysts of Grupo Financiero Banorte S.A.B. C.V, since this depends on a large number of various endogenous and exogenous factors that affect the performance of the issuing company, the environment in which it performs, along with the influence of trends of the stock market, in which it is listed. Moreover, the investor must consider that the price of the securities or instruments can fluctuate against their interest and cause the partial and even total loss of the invested capital.
