Financial Markets Daily

Main drivers for the financial markets today...

- Stock markets negative, S&P Futures up, USD with small changes and government bond yields mixed with investors digesting the Federal Reserve's rate hike and Powell's comments, as well as rate moves by key European central banks amid concerns about inflation and the banking system
- Markets attentive to Yellen's testimony before the House Appropriations subcommittee
- Regarding monetary policy, the BoE increased its reference rate by 25bp to place it at 4.25%, while Switzerland and Norway posted increases of +50bp and 25bp, respectively
- In economic figures, jobless claims for the week ending March 18 were released in the US, standing at 191k from 192k the previous week, confirming that the labor market's strength remains. Later, the new home sales report for February will be published
- In Mexico, INEGI released inflation for 1H-March, up 0.15% 2w/2w, with the core at 0.30%, with the former below expectations. As such, the annual print moderated to 7.12% from 7.48%, with a more favorable base effect
- INEGI also published January's retail sales, climbing 1.6% m/m (5.3% y/y), noting strength in clothing & shoes and vehicles & fuel

Equities

- Equity markets mixed, following yesterday's 25bp rise in the US benchmark rate, as investors continue to assess the impact of the crisis in some regional banks
- US futures anticipate an upward opening with the S&P 500 trading 0.6% above its theoretical value and the Nasdaq 1.0%, following yesterday's losses on Powell's comments and incorporating another 25bp hike in May. Meanwhile, European markets trade with generalized losses, with the Eurostoxx decreasing 0.1% as it assimilates the Bank of England's monetary policy decision. Finally, Asia closed mixed, with the Hang Seng advancing 2.3%
- In Mexico, the Mexbol Index could hover around 52,800pts

Sovereign fixed income, currencies and commodities

- Mixed performance in sovereign bonds. European assets gain up to 6bps. The Treasuries' curve print losses of 3bps, on average. Yesterday, the Mbonos' curve closed with a flattening bias because of 9bps gains at the short-end, while the rest of the curve adjusted -16bps
- The dollar retreats, allowing most G10 currencies to trade in positive territory with NOK (+1.0%) leading the gains. In EM, the bias is also positive with KRW (+2.3%) as the strongest. Meanwhile, MXN appreciates 0.3% at 18.55 per dollar, after losing 0.1% yesterday
- Crude-oil futures fall 0.5%, digesting yesterday's Fed decision and a rise in US crude inventories reaching their highest level since May 2021. Metals trade with positive bias with copper and gold advancing 0.5% and 0.4%, respectively

Corporate Debt

- Today we expect the auction of two unsecured notes from Grupo Aeroportuario del Pacífico, GAP 23L / 23-2L, for up to MXN 4.5 billion (with an option of an additional 20%). The series 23L will have a 3-year term and will pay a floating rate pegged to the 28-day THE, and series 23-2L will have a 7-year term paying a fixed rate
- The proposed notes GAP 23L / 23-2L have the Sustainability-Linked Bonds (L) tag with the target to reduce by 25% the greenhouse gas emissions of its 14 airports by 2025
- Also, we expect the auction of three bonds from América Móvil, AMX 23 / 23-2 / 22-2 (tap issue), for a base amount of MXN 7.5 billion (max. MXN 15.0 billion), with 1.1, 5 and 2.6-year terms, respectively. The issuances local scale ratings are 'AAA' by Moody's Local MX, S&P Global Ratings and Fitch Ratings

Moreover, we also state that we have not received, nor receive, or will receive compensation other than that of Grupo Financiero Banorte S.A.B. of C.V for the provision of our services.

Relevant statements.

In accordance with current laws and internal procedures manuals, analysts are allowed to hold long or short positions in shares or securities issued by companies that are listed on the Mexican Stock Exchange and may be the subject of this report; nonetheless, equity analysts have to adhere to certain rules that regulate their participation in the market in order to prevent, among other things, the use of private information for their benefit and to avoid conflicts of interest. Analysts shall refrain from investing and holding transactions with securities or derivative instruments directly or through an intermediary person, with Securities subject to research reports, from 30 calendar days prior to the issuance date of the report in question, and up to 10 calendar days after its distribution date.

Compensation of Analysts.

Analysts' compensation is based on activities and services that are aimed at benefiting the investment clients of Casa de Bolsa Banorte and its subsidiaries. Such compensation is determined based on the general profitability of the Brokerage House and the Financial Group and on the individual performance of each analyst. However, investors should note that analysts do not receive direct payment or compensation for any specific transaction in investment banking or in other business areas.

Last-twelve-month activities of the business areas.

Grupo Financiero Banorte S.A.B. de C.V., through its business areas, provides services that include, among others, those corresponding to investment banking and corporate banking, to a large number of companies in Mexico and abroad. It may have provided, is providing or, in the future, will provide a service such as those mentioned to the companies or firms that are the subject of this report. Casa de Bolsa Banorte or its affiliates receive compensation from such corporations in consideration of the aforementioned services.

Over the course of the last twelve months, Grupo Financiero Banorte S.A.B. C.V., has not obtained compensation for services rendered by the investment bank or by any of its other business areas of the following companies or their subsidiaries, some of which could be analyzed within this report.

Activities of the business areas during the next three months.

Casa de Bolsa Banorte, Grupo Financiero Banorte or its subsidiaries expect to receive or intend to obtain revenue from the services provided by investment banking or any other of its business areas, by issuers or their subsidiaries, some of which could be analyzed in this report.

Securities holdings and other disclosures.

As of the end of last quarter, Grupo Financiero Banorte S.A.B. of C.V. has not held investments, directly or indirectly, in securities or derivative financial instruments, whose underlying securities are the subject of recommendations, representing 1% or more of its investment portfolio of outstanding securities or 1 % of the issuance or underlying of the securities issued.

None of the members of the Board of Grupo Financiero Banorte and Casa de Bolsa Banorte, along general managers and executives of an immediately below level, have any charges in the issuers that may be analyzed in this document.

The Analysts of Grupo Financiero Banorte S.A.B. of C.V. do not maintain direct investments or through an intermediary person, in the securities or derivative instruments object of this analysis report.

Guide for investment recommendations.

	Reference
BUY	When the share expected performance is greater than the MEXBOL estimated performance.
HOLD	When the share expected performance is similar to the MEXBOL estimated performance.
SELL	When the share expected performance is lower than the MEXBOL estimated performance.

Even though this document offers a general criterion of investment, we urge readers to seek advice from their own Consultants or Financial Advisors, in order to consider whether any of the values mentioned in this report are in line with their investment goals, risk and financial position.

Determination of Target Prices

For the calculation of estimated target prices for securities, analysts use a combination of methodologies generally accepted among financial analysts, including, but not limited to, multiples analysis, discounted cash flows, sum-of-the-parts or any other method that could be applicable in each specific case according to the current regulation. No guarantee can be given that the target prices calculated for the securities will be achieved by the analysts of Grupo Financiero Banorte S.A.B. C.V, since this depends on a large number of various endogenous and exogenous factors that affect the performance of the issuing company, the environment in which it performs, along with the influence of trends of the stock market, in which it is listed. Moreover, the investor must consider that the price of the securities or instruments can fluctuate against their interest and cause the partial and even total loss of the invested capital.

The information contained hereby has been obtained from sources that we consider to be reliable, but we make no representation as to its accuracy or completeness. The information, estimations and recommendations included in this document are valid as of the issue date, but are subject to modifications and changes without prior notice; Grupo Financiero Banorte S.A.B. of C.V. does not commit to communicate the changes and also to keep the content of this document updated.
