- With 253 votes in favor and 205 against, the Mexican Lower House approved the government spending part of the budget for fiscal year 2018
- Recall that on October 27 the Senate approved the Income Law for 2018, and now with the approval of the budget ends the discussion of the FY18 government budget
- The budget for 2018 contemplates a MXN$5,279.7bn (~US$277.1bn), which implies a MXN$43bn (~US$2.1bn) increase from the Federal Government's proposal
- Allocations for federal agencies totaled MXN$1,023.7bn (which represents a 1.6% real growth vs. 2017's approved figures), of which MXN$281bn were allotted to Public Education
- Among the autonomous dependencies, the MXN$70.8bn for the judicial power stands out, which implies a MXN$6.5bn reduction from the Federal Government's original proposal
- Moreover, the legislative branch will receive MXN$15.6bn in 2018, which represents an increase of 1.3% with respect to the original budget project
- In addition, the states and municipalities will receive an 4.3% increase in the shares of the participations of the Federal Government with respect to the original MoF original proposal
- We emphasize that the budget considers a MXN$18bn increase in the Natural Disasters Fund (FONDEN), which will be used for the reconstruction of public infrastructure and housing affected by the recent earthquakes
- The budget also contemplates the creation of a new reconstruction fund (FONREC) destined to accelerate the response of the federal government to natural disasters. Initially this fund will have MXN$2.5bn, but the budget includes the option to expand it to MXN$10bn if necessary
- The budget also envisages an important allocation of resources to the continuity of social programs, where we highlight the allocation of MXN$82bn to PROSPERA –one of Mexico's largest and most important social development program– and MXN$16.6bn to the Agriculture Promotion Program
- In our opinion, the spending part of the budget for fiscal year 2018 is in line with the fiscal consolidation efforts made by the federal government previously approved in the Revenue Law for 2018
